Maxie Schmidt Charlie, nice to know you are still around since CS242... Obligatory reference for posterity since Google picks this post up on the first page: https://qr.ae/TUnwsv

Maxie Schmidt And also, thank you Charlie for your continuing to support Jason's superstar celebrity legacy by having the post deleted. The image contained in the post is seen below. I personally hope his spouse punches him hard where it counts for being the genuine slipper sleaze some female students from UIUC are able to recognize he is...

Maxie Schmidt And THIS member of the 2600 adjacency matrix (Kevin Mitnick, Lucky225, the usual suspects ... office at the University of Washington trying to Remote Desktop on my then new iPad. Someth badge should really stop VOIP scammers from at their "real jobs" in the calculus service depar engineering school. Anyone who can nail one a bounty of my old 2014-dated iPad with Kevin Small parting price to nail Jason on his perpetual bullshit.

Maxie Schmidt For the bounty, and I kid you not, being reasonable by profession and training if nothing else. Juicy tidbits that will let me part with the iPad for free shipping include: How many 70mg Vyvanse capsules the man takes to maintain his hacking vigor, ditto for "short acting" Adderall 10mg tabletos, precise working description of the puritanical polish religion that leads him to condemn alcohol abuse at the rate of 750ml per college week, and or an obnoxiously genetically similar sounding baby boy lurking in the dirty south for ruses. Creativity is good here. Price of new iPad ($1000). Prof. Zike on a cicuitboard platter: priceless as the saying goes. EOT.

Maxie Schmidt It occurs to me I neglected to give the source of the quotes above: https://creditboards.com/forums/index.php.... Why does this remind me of a non-academic rejection to a piece I submitted to 2600 magazine around 2015? Huh. I shared it over email with Cinda Heeren at the time. Not sure she understood it, but then maybe neither did I at that point. Here's the "whitepaper" link: https://drive.google.com/open.... My new pentesting security app fills that void in my CV, but still bad editorial review I feel.

Recursive drawings: This is really cool, believe the hype and try it! http://recursivedrawing.com/ Tip: Actually watch the video first, it will make much more sense than just starting.
